

2022

ACG'S FUNCTIONAL GI AND MOTILITY DISORDERS & ACG BOARD OF GOVERNORS / ASGE BEST PRACTICES COURSE

VIRTUAL FUNCTIONAL GI AND MOTILITY DISORDERS SCHOOL FRIDAY, JANUARY 28, 2022 | ALL VIRTUAL AGENDA

ACG 2022 Virtual Functional GI and Motility Disorders School

In order to maximize effective online clinical education, ACG will be offering this Functional GI and Motility Disorders School as a flexible combination of on-demand education supported by engaging LIVE Q&A webcasts with expert faculty. With the ACG virtual Functional GI and Motility Disorders School, you will receive on-demand access to over 7 hours of recorded lectures delivered by world-class faculty. Each of the 18 lectures will help you explore some of the most common diseases that the gastroenterologist often faces in clinical practice, and assess ways to improve communication, diagnosis, and management of patients with IBS and other functional GI disorders. Videos will be available for viewing starting on January 18, 2022. Watch the videos on your own time and have access to them for up to one year following the course.

Live Q&A Webcasts Give You Access to the Experts

Register by January 28, 2022 and you will also receive exclusive access to LIVE webcast Q&A sessions! Course Directors William D. Chey, MD, FACG, and Rena H. Yadlapati, MD, MSHS, FACG, will host LIVE Q&A webcasts on Friday, January 28th from 7:00 – 7:45 pm, from 8:00 – 8:45 pm (Eastern Time). Attendees will have the opportunity to submit questions during the live broadcasts. As an added resource, the recordings of the Q&A sessions will be available to registrants following the sessions.
