Leadership and Advocacy Skills Development—Apply Today!

THE PROGRAM:
ACG Institute & YPLSP Course Directors Dr. David Hass and Dr. Mark Pochapin invite you to apply for an in-person leadership and advocacy program at ACG 2020 in Nashville.

LEARN ABOUT:
- Executive decision making
- Physician burnout prevention
- Advocacy Critical thinking
- Organizational behavior
- Emotional intelligence / Physician resilience
- Advocacy

WHEN:
- Friday, October 23, 2020
  7:30 am - 1:30 pm
- Participate in the annual ACG Governors’ Legislative Fly-in to Capitol Hill in Washington, DC in April 2021

ELIGIBILITY:
Young Physicians, who are in their 3rd and 4th year of fellowship, or less than 5 years out of fellowship are eligible for this program. Applicants must be an ACG member and practicing in the U.S. A short application with a statement of interest, your CV, and a letter of nomination are required. Selections will be announced in August.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: JULY 10, 2020
To learn more or apply online, visit gi.org/yplsp

PROGRAM COMPONENTS:
- Online Educational Module — May–October 2020
- Friday Course at ACG 2020 in Nashville, TN—October 23, 2020
- Participate in the Washington DC ACG Governors’ Legislative Fly-in—April 2021

The ACG Young Physician Leadership Scholars Program (YPLSP) provides physicians with a comprehensive skill set that will serve as the foundation for the development of leadership and physician advocacy skills.

Learn more: gi.org/yplsp