

ACG Institute

YOUNG PHYSICIAN LEADERSHIP SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Elevating Great Doctors into Great Leaders

Leadership and Advocacy Skills Development—Apply Today!

THE PROGRAM:

ACG Institute & YPLSP Course Directors Dr. David Hass and Dr. Mark Pochapin invite you to apply for an in-person leadership and advocacy program at ACG 2021 in Las Vegas.

LEARN ABOUT:

- ✓ Executive decision making
- ✓ Critical thinking
- ✓ Organizational behavior
- ✓ Emotional intelligence / Physician resilience
- ✓ Advocacy
- ✓ Physician burnout prevention

WHEN:

- Friday, October 22, 2021
- Participate in the annual ACG Governors' Legislative Fly-in to Capitol Hill in Washington, DC in April 2022

ELIGIBILITY:

Young Physicians, who are in their 3rd and 4th year of fellowship, or less than 5 years out of fellowship are eligible for this program. Applicants must be an ACG member and practicing in the U.S. A short application with a statement of interest, your CV, and a letter of nomination are required. Selections will be announced in August.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: JULY 9, 2021

To learn more or apply online, visit gi.org/yplsp

PROGRAM COMPONENTS:

- Online Preliminary Work — August–October 2021
- Friday Course at ACG 2021 in Las Vegas, NV — October 22, 2021
- Participate in the Washington DC ACG Governors' Legislative Fly-in — April 7-8, 2022

The ACG Young Physician Leadership Scholars Program (YPLSP) provides physicians with a comprehensive skill set that will serve as the foundation for the development of leadership and physician advocacy skills.

Learn more: gi.org/yplsp

The Young Physician Leadership Scholars Program is a project of the ACG Institute and is supported by charitable contributions to the G.U.T. Fund.